NEWSPAPER MEN TO MEET AT THE CAPITAL

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 28
The National Negro Press Association of newspaper men of the United States will gather in this city in an annual convention according to information received here today by J. Edgar Wilson, man, who is an officer in the Association and editor of the Washington Argument. He declared that the effort to have already been looked and of J. L. Jones, chairman of the Executive Committee; C. J. Perry, president; J. A. Harnett, recording secretary.

The meeting of newspaper men in this city just prior to the inauguration will enable representatives, newspaper editors, owners and managers to spend the inauguration in the National Capital while attending the annual convention. It will be Washington's first time to have the convention in its own city. Plans to entertain the convention have been made by the local organization, headed by J. Edgar Wilson, is already active at work preparing to take care of the large number of stenographers.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The National population of Pittsburgh, revised last year, shows an increase of 10,000, or 10 per cent, from 100,000 to 110,000. The white population was 50,000, an increase of 42,200, or 82 per cent, and others 10,000.
Negroes in Philadelphia numbered 154,000, an increase of 60,000, or 39.5 per cent. The white population was 570,000, an increase of 100,000, or 21.4 per cent, and others 11,000.

BOB RUSSELL CLOSING BIG ENGAGEMENT WITH ROLLING PAPER COMEDY AT THE B. W. W.

There is a wealth of fun in "Toby's Brother." In fact the show at the Booker Washington Theatre, this week is a grand climax to the production of "Toby's Brother," which could not be produced a few weeks back because of the illness of Mr.
Russell. There is trouble a plenty.
It varies much, but centers around "Toby," who decided to put his pay-or a part of it, in his working pants, hid from his wife, Toby made the mistake of changing clothes and forgetting the coin. His wife needed money and sold the pants. What happens after that is sufficient to keep the audience screaming with hilarity to the end, when Toby finds his clothes in a dude in the audience.
The production is replete with breezy specializing. A special feature is the appearance of Miss Elaine Johnson in "The Yamp." This little actress is the personification of grace and art, and her work is well appreciated by the audience. She is advised by Freddie La Day, who has established himself in the hearts of the theatre goes as a versatile character artist of finished ability.
Other features in the specialty of Toby are a "Baby Doll" situation by Fairchild, Sunny and Lanny assisted by some of the vamps; Sunny in an eccentric black dance; a quarrel of girls in choruses that get a number of choruses and the company in several good song and dance numbers.

Engagement Closes Sunday

Sunday night will see the close of this engagement of Bob Russell and his capable company, which will be divided into two sections, one going to Memphis and the other to Detroit.
It will bring to an end nine weeks of entertaining of the best on the Colored theatre stage. Nine weeks without a faint of usual or suggessiveness to offend even the most fastidious. Mr. Russell has raised the standard of the show here. He has shown an ability to be facetious without resorting to the canister death of infamous burlesque. He will ever be remembered and appreciated.

Vanderbilt Host Work

A program of good vaudeville has been booked for next week, beginning Monday. It will include Wells and Wells, the premier trapeze performers; Davenport and Davenport in an alignment of latest vaudeville comedy favorites; Boatner and Boatner in a cycle of nonsense (and Garnett Washington in a love comedy specialty. The lineup bids fare to be a winner.

LADY A REAL ARTIST

The engagement of the Bob Russell company at the Booker Washington has proved to be a success.
A number of talented and promising performers who well deserve special mention. Perhaps the most conspicuous of these is Freddie Lajoie. This performer has shown a versatility, as a character artist, that classifies him without a peer. He is not new to St. Louis, having appeared here at various times in vaudeville. He was born in Marion, Indiana and has spent seventeen of his thirty-three years on the stage. He is not only an actor of established ability but a manager and producer as well.
He is a close student of the art and finds pleasure in trying to please others. St. Louisans have grown to appreciate his work and regret to see him leave the Booker Washington stage. His stay here has given an opportunity to display his real ability, with credit to the forefathers of Mr. Russell, and the patrons will welcome his return at any time in the future.
Clara Smith may be called a Russell discovery so far as St. Louisans are concerned. She has been a drawing card during the company's stay here. Her songs have an individuality that place her in a class by herself.

Tragical Hartraves, St. Louis world leading dancer, was booked as a feature at the big Missouri Theatre last week.

H. M. Laakford, the troubadour, who is filling an engagement at the Hippodrome Theatre in Shreveport, La., is spending a few days with his mother in St. Louis.

J. ROSAMOND JOHNSON
AND COMPANY TO BE AT THE "Y" SATURDAY

J. Rosamond Johnson and his company of five entertainers are a long-standing feature at the Orpheum Theatre this week where where Negro Patrons are not wanted, but this will not prevent the work of one of their best performers. They will appear at the Pine Street Department Y. M. C. Saturday night. The program will be in the form of a public reception to Mr. Johnson and his company, which time they will render the entire act as given at the Orpheum Theatre.
The company stands at the head of the list in the matter of musical production and as the Pine Street Theatre in the issue of Monday said, "It is an act in a class by itself." Johnson was formerly of the Cole and Johnson Company and is the author of a number of popular songs including "Since you went away," which is now being sung by John Mc-Cormack.

The reception and entertainment will be open to the public as long as the music lasts, the show will be closed. While Mr. Johnson will not conduct the American Song Festival program will begin at 8-10.

AT THE MOVIES

THE CRITERION—Bert Lytell in "The Price of Redemption" will be the feature at the Criterion Theatre this Saturday. It is an absorbing story with its scenes laid for the most part in the heart of India and tells of a gripping story of a man who became a hero through a deed of desperate bravery, and then after a wealthy, though unhappy marriage, sinks to the depths of degradation in darkest India. His redemption thru the love of his little child provides the picture with its tremendous heart appeal.

On Sunday, this theatre will show Tom Mix in "The Texan". It is a picture of the cattle country and the mountains—a red-blooded, romantic story of the great open spaces, of men who do things and of women who are brave; a tale of once turbulent and tender, impassioned but restrained love. It is rich in romance, sensational in incident and abounds with the daring feats for which the star is noted.

THE MOVIE—On Saturday and Sunday this theatre will offer Oscar Micheaux's latest all Negro Cast Photoplay, "The Symbol of the Cross," which has taken St. Louis by storm after breaking all records at Memphis, Tenn. It has heart interest love story and deals with an effort to save a colored man out a supposed worthless tract of land on which oil has been discovered. To carry out this scheme the Ku Klux Klan is resorted to, and they are seen at the hour of midnight, robed in white, with masks, and with fiery torches. They fall in their effort, however, and the colored man becomes a millionaire thru his royalties on oil.

On Tuesday the movie will show the big spectacular drama "While New York Sleeps."

THE STAR—The big all colored picture "In the Depths of Our Hearts" will be the feature at the Star Theatre this Saturday and Sunday. It is a drama that deals with caste, based on color, and tells of a race. Its story is most interesting and absorbing and leaves one with much to ponder over.

The big super-feature at this theatre next Thursday will be the picture "Occasionally Yours." The story deals with present day society life and leads itself to beautiful stage settings. Artistic lighting effects and elaborate interior abound. The spectator being carried into scenes of unusual luxury and richness, one viewing a studio full of gowns and shapely models is particularly attractive.

THE COMET—Among the week's features at the Comet will be William Farnum in "The Scuttlers" on Sunday. It is a story of a man who fell of thrills and beauty. A ship 250 feet in length was chartered for the ship scene, and the story is a yachting which takes the shipwrecked persons from a desert island.

Many of the scenes are in the galley and the hold of the boat. "The Snigger Coast" also is a feature, a place on the Barbary coast also is reproduced in the picture.

On Thursday, the Comet will present Lois Weber's Paramount picture, "To Please One Woman." It is the story of a man who tried to win a woman by showering gifts upon her. It is a story of a man who makes her his more and more unreasonably in her demands. The quest for pleasure, she does not hesitate to shatter other people's romance, and her high handedness leaves a wake of unhappiness and intrigue, until at last she meets a fitting reward.

THE JEST-A-MERE—On Sunday and Monday the Jest-A-Mere Theatre will show, "The Stealers." The story deals with the blasphemous conduct of a minister who tried to win a woman by showering gifts upon her. It is a story of a man who makes her his more and more unreasonably in her demands. The quest for pleasure, she does not hesitate to shatter other people's romance, and her high handedness leaves a wake of unhappiness and intrigue, until at last she meets a fitting reward.

THE PERKINSON—All the week was thrilling drama on the great horse race between Sir Barton and Man o' War. The last week was up in Canada and the names of the people had to be satisfied with reading of the exciting story of the famous American horse. Now the exciting race may be seen by everyone who will be shown in "The Rule of the Age" at the Criterion Theatre this Saturday and Sunday.

On Monday and Tuesday, Pauline Frederick in "The Price of Redemption" will be the feature at the Criterion Theatre. It is an absorbing story with its scenes laid for the most part in the heart of India and tells of a gripping story of a man who became a hero through a deed of desperate bravery, and then after a wealthy, though unhappy marriage, sinks to the depths of degradation in darkest India. His redemption thru the love of his little child provides the picture with its tremendous heart appeal.

A Good Chance For Profitable Investment

TO THE COLORED CITIZENS OF ST. LOUIS, MO.

Our traveling representatives have been late in reaching your town and we doubt if they will be able to see you before our books close on February 10th. This advertisement, therefore, is to give you, your friends and business associates an opportunity to share in the honor of being among the organizers of this, the greatest movement in colored history.

Organized Finance is the Power ruling the World today. Without organized finance no people can develop common credit, protect their interest or secure a proper share in the prosperity of the country. The very centre of organized finance is the Stock Exchange.

The Harlem Stock Exchange will provide a market where the stocks colored people have invested in can be sold or a loan secured on same. It will encourage enterprise and protect investors against sellers of worthless stocks. Further it will train men of our race in the arts of finance and trading, and provide a direct market for products of colored origin.

Shares in the Exchange at present sell at $5.00 per share for either the 8 per cent preferred stock or the common stock. As the Exchange gets its income from commissions on the sale and purchase of stock, brokers dues, charges for listing, etc., it runs no business risks. Whilst, therefore, you are guaranteed a dividend of 8 per cent yearly, no doubt the one of the safest and most profitable ever offered our race.

Branches of the Exchange are being established in several cities having large colored populations. The Philadelphia branch is run under the auspices of a syndicate headed by B. C. Cole (the well-known promoter), E. C. Brown and A. F. Stevens (the great bankers), etc.

We want all the best minds among the colored people to behind this movement, and therefore, urge your forwarding subscription blank below along with remittance without delay.

HARLEM STOCK EXCHANGE,
240 Broadway, N. Y. C.

I hereby subscribe to ..... shares of 8 per cent preferred and ..... shares of common stock of the Harlem Stock Exchange at $5.00 per share and enclose you $..... to cover the subscription.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to thank our kind friends and relatives for kindness shown us in the loss of our mother, Margaret, who died at the beautiful floral designs and Mr. A. L. Beal, the undertaker for his excellent service.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to express our sincere thanks and profound gratitude to the many friends for their words of sympathy shown us during the illness and death of our devoted husband and father, Edward Evans, and also for the beautiful floral offerings. Yours in sorrow, Mrs. LIZZIE EVANS, wife and daughter.

CARD OF THANKS
We desire here to extend our sincere and heartfelt thanks to our relatives and friends for their kind expression of sympathy and the beautiful floral offerings tendered us during the hour of sadness, occasioned by the loss through death of my dear beloved husband and son, Tom Reynolds. We wish also to thank the Rev. T. H. Nator for his prayer and kind words of consolation and A. L. Beal, undertaker for the excellent service rendered.

IN MEMORIAM
SANFORD A. HUTT
1899 1918
In loving memory of Little Estella Thompson, who departed this life Jan. 27, 1921. You are gone but not forgotten. Nor shall I ever be. As long as life and memory last, We shall remember thee. If we had seen you at the last, And held your dying hand; And heard the last sigh from your breast, We would not feel so bad. We did not know the pains you had, We did not see the tears you shed. We only know you went away, And never said goodbye. It is two years since you left us, And we miss you more and more; Our hearts are filled with sadness, For the smile we see no more. Mary Poston, grand mother; Mrs. Stella Sorel, aunt.

MEMORIAM
In loving remembrance of dear wife, mother and grandmother—Esther Hanson, who departed this life, January 29, 1916.
The month of January is here. To us the saddest of the year: Because it took from us away: A dear one who was one of our best. Her loving heart is now at rest, God took her home when he thought best.
When we are done with toll and care We'll meet our dear beloved there.

ed his death some hours later at General Hospital.
One report said that a Brown and Walker undertaker, in South Memphis were holding two unidentified bodies, this establishment Tuesday morning denied the report.
Among the colored persons most injured were:
James Hunt, 22, 67, Looney Street, burned.
Arthur Johnson, 35, 364 Butler Street, burned.
Andrew Taylor, 39, 618 N. Front Street, burned.
Ophelia Hines, 26, 67 Looney Street, burned.
Ed Bradford, 31, 67 Looney Street, burned.
Katie Vincent, 37, 57 Looney Street, burned.
Colvinne Strong, 41, 450 N. Front Street, lost her right eye.
Rosetta Smith, 27, 1002 Smith St., and Morgan Case Smith, 5, 73 Looney Street, burned all exposed to the view.
Mary Ellen Terry, 23, 67 Looney Street, ankle strained, otherwise unharmed.
Goldie Terry, 5, daughter of Mary Terry burned on feet and hands; not injured.
The three-year-old son of Mary Terry Talma Lee Terry, is also at the hospital but is not injured.

It is probable that some of the bodies in the wrecked tenement which lay across Front street from the hospital will never be recovered. The half block of tenement houses was completely razed. Fire which followed the explosions may have burned perished.
